

THE ADVENTURES OF PRINCESS OCTAVIA

PRINCESS
OCTAVIA AND
THE FIRE
BREATHING DRAGON

Once upon a time there was a beautiful Princess named Octavia. She was a good and kind princess and she loved everyone in her kingdom. She gave hugs and kisses to all she met.

Princess Octavia lived with her mommy, Princess Brandi, her nana, the Queen, and King Poppy in the most beautiful kingdom. The Royal dog, Jax, lived there too. They went for a walk in the kingdom everyday and waved to all the people they saw.

One day, a big green dragon came to the kingdom. He had sharp claws and blew fire out of his nose. When the villagers saw him, they were very scared and ran away as fast as they could.

King Poppy tried to keep the dragon away from the kingdom. “Stop right there!” said the king, but the dragon just blew fire from his nose and kept right on walking.

The Queen tried to keep the dragon from going to the kingdom. “Go no further!” said the Queen, but the dragon just blew fire from his nose and kept right on walking.

Soon, the dragon was getting close to the castle. Princess Brandi tried to stop the dragon from getting any closer. “That’s far enough dragon!” said the princess, but the dragon just blew fire from his nose and kept right on walking.

Even Jax, the Royal dog, tried to stop the dragon. “Ruff, ruff, grrrrrr” said Jax, but the dragon just blew fire from his nose and kept right on walking.

When the dragon got to the castle, Princess Octavia was the only one home. Instead of trying to chase the dragon away, she gave him a big hug and a kiss. Instead of blowing fire out of his nose, the dragon blew little puffs of smoke shaped like hearts.

King Poppy, Queen Nana, Princess Brandi, and Jax, the Royal dog, were afraid when they saw the dragon so close to Princess Octavia. “Watch out!” yelled the King. “Be careful!” Queen Nana shouted. “He’s dangerous!” cried Princess Brandi. “Ruff, ruff, grrrrr” barked Jax.

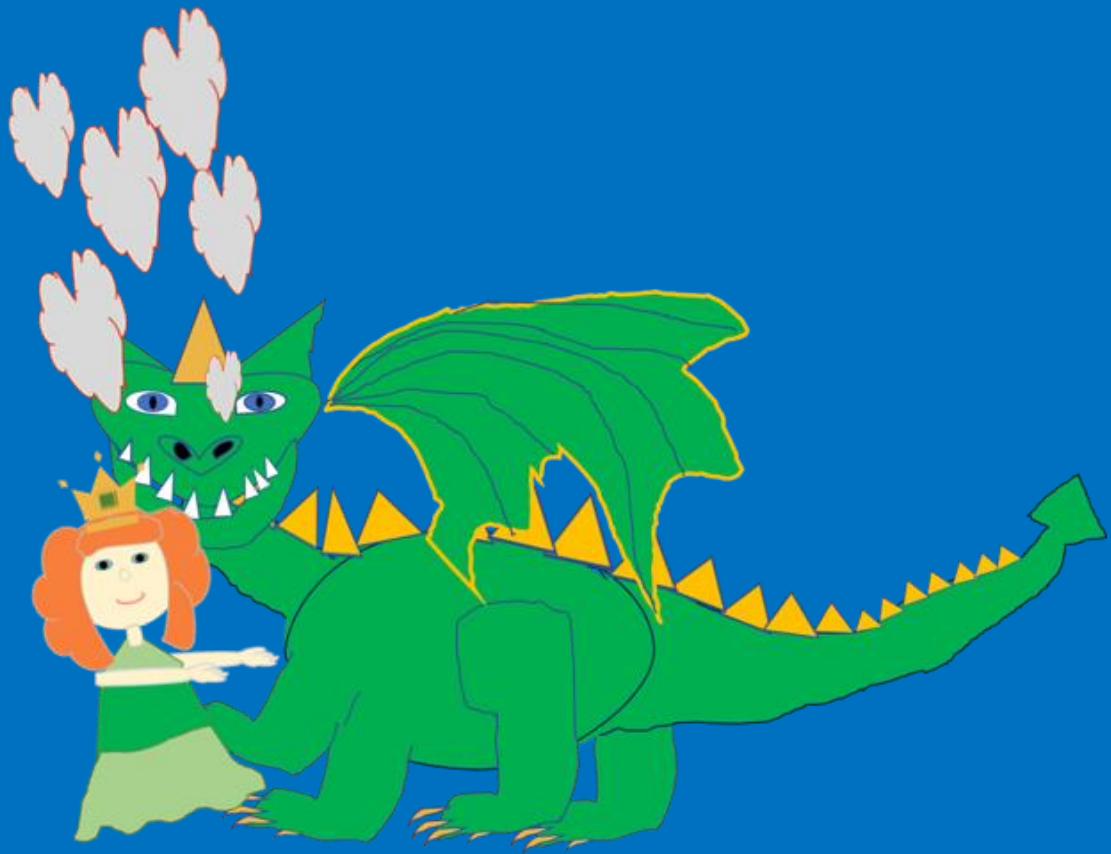

“He’s not dangerous, he’s just different than we are” said Princess Octavia. “All he wanted was for someone to be nice to him” she added.

The Royal family could see that Princess Octavia was right. The dragon was smiling, and he loved her hugs and kisses. Pretty soon everyone was being very nice to the dragon even though he was different than they were.

The dragon and Princess Octavia became good friends and he lived with her at the castle. Everyone else became friends with the dragon too, once they understood that just because someone is different it doesn't mean they are dangerous.

Copyright © 2020 By Angela Bailiff
All Rights Reserved licensing.
Content cannot be distributed,
remixed, or otherwise used without owner's express consent.